FOREST HILLS HIGH SCHOOL

JANUARY 1946

FOREST HILLS, NEW YORK

Dedication

The cruelties of war which we have known throughout our high school career are over now. There remains for us the rebuilding of a free, democratic world. This graduating class of 1946, therefore, proudly dedicates this edition of the Forester to the ideals of freedom and equality in a world of peace where oppression and tyranny will never again be permitted to flourish.

MISS RENEE J. FULTON

Dear Seniors:

You are our first peace-time graduates. While the battle raged we taught you the ways of peace. Now the great adventure of democracy lies before you. Though your paths may take you to the far corners of the earth, you will not travel alone. Everywhere you will find companionship in the brotherhood of man. This time the human spirit must not fail the nations of the world.

"For what are nations but the human mind

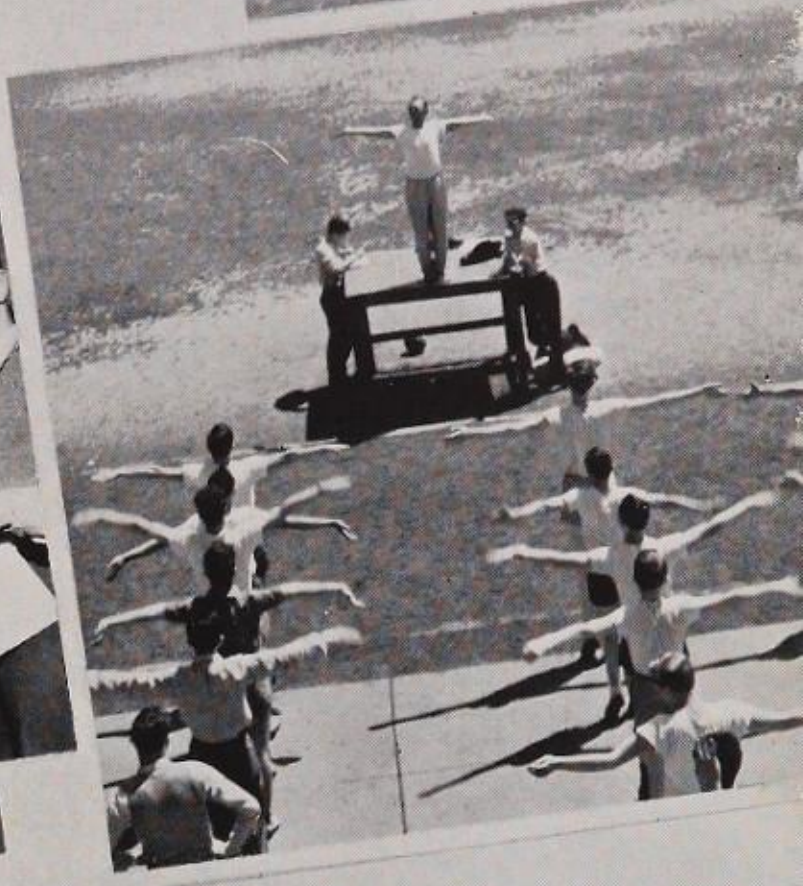

So many millions magnified."

The faculty of Forest Hills High School places infinite trust in you and wishes you Godspeed.

CLASS HISTORY

February, 1942

Dear Diary,

I am a freshman in Forest Hills High School. Our class is the first to enter since the war began. When we arrived this morning we went to section, which turned out to be just our official room. It seems queer to be allowed to talk in the halls between classes. We filled out Delaney cards in class, and my Civics teacher called me Miss. We got a table in the cafeteria, but when we came back from the lunch line, some Seniors had taken it. The food is good, but tomorrow I think I'll bring my lunch. We went to Study where a big man shouted at us to keep quiet and sit one seat apart. I have a terrible crush on my General Science teacher.

Buenos noches.

April, 1942

Dear Diary,

We had a circus at school tonight. Everyone had loads of fun. It was the first big event since the school opened. They had games and sideshows in the classrooms and dancing and refreshments in the girls' gym. It was a wonderful evening, but gosh, am I tired.

Good night.

September, 1942

Dear Diary,

The new freshmen came in today, and I felt so superior. At least I'm educated. One of them asked me where the cafeteria was, and I wanted to send him to the fourth floor, as someone once did to me, but I didn't have the heart to do it. Speaking of the fourth floor, I wonder what goes on up in the tower. Sometimes I hear the strangest noises coming from there. That's all for now; I have to finish The Odyssey.

Good night.

February, 1943

Dear Diary,

Along with thousands of other people, I went to see Forest Hills play a basketball game against Andrew Jackson High School this afternoon. At least there seemed to be that many people in the subway. I was pushed, shoved, poked, and practically trampled, but I reached the game in one piece. It was a close game, but we lost, so they're Queens champions. It was very exciting to see our boys play in such a huge place. The crowd cheered continuously, but everyone was downhearted when we didn't win. And our cheerleaders worked so hard! They're really prettier than the Jackson girls, even if they're not all blondes.

Bon soir.

May, 1943

Dear Diary,

Tonight we all went to see This Is My Country, better known as the Victory Show. It was even better than last year's circus, and they're giving three performances. Besides the wonderful dancing, acting, and roller skating, there were two skits. One was given by the Play Production group, and the other, entitled Easter Parade, 1893, was entirely written and performed by the faculty. The whole thing was just wonderful.

G'night.

December, 1943

Dear Diary,

We've had a series of Know Your Allies assemblies during the term, to help us become better acquainted with the people fighting the war on our side. So far we've learned about England and China, and today Quentin Reynolds spoke to us about Russia and the German atrocities. He also told us of the hardships our boys overseas are enduring and of their wonderful spirit. We've been at war for two years now, and F. H. H. S. has been doing more than its share in the war effort. Whenever I see the efficiency pennant that we earned in the BUY A BOMBER Campaign, I can't help feeling proud.

Good night.

May, 1944

Dear Diary,

Tonight the Play Production group gave their first performance of Junior Miss. It will be given tomorrow night, too. Students and parents turned out in full force, and the play was a huge success. Afterwards, Miss Schlachter received roses from the cast.

'Bye now.

June, 1944

Dear Diary,

When we arrived at school this morning, we heard the startling news that the invasion had begun, and that D-Day was finally here. We had a special assembly and Dr. Lucey's inspiring speech brought tears to my eyes. This was a day I'll always remember.

Good night.

September, 1944

Dear Diary,

After three years in high school, we finally got what everyone's been asking for—a co-ed lunchroom. We now can sit on whichever side of the cafeteria we like, and above all, with whomever we like. Apparently, we still like ourselves, for we're still exclusive!

There is a rumor going around that Dr. Lucey is leaving at the end of this term. He has become such an important part of the school that I can't imagine F. H. H. S. without him. We shall miss him if he goes.

Good night.

April, 1945

Dear Diary,

The death of President Roosevelt yesterday came as a great shock to everyone. We heard a special broadcast over the public address system this morning. First Miss Fulton spoke, and then the Lord's Prayer was sung. It was a beautiful tribute to a great man.

Good night.

May, 1945

Dear Diary,

Two down and one to go! Germany has surrendered officially and now it's "On to Tokyo." I arrived at school early today and heard President Truman's proclamation. We all feel that a large part of the job has been done, but it's not over yet.

We elected our Senior officers for next term. It doesn't seem possible that we'll be Seniors in the fall.

Hasta la vista.

June, 1945

Dear Diary,

The Annual Spring Concert was presented tonight. Mr. Hamje conducted the orchestra and Mrs. Kavanaugh directed the chorus. They played one of my favorites, Chopin's Concerto No. 1, the First Movement. Of course I liked that best.

Good night.

September, 1945

Dear Diary,

At last I am a senior. It's wonderful. We got our senior buttons and hats today. The hats are really loud and ours is the first class to have buttons. They seem to arouse class spirit and bring us closer together. Saturday we are going to have a picnic in Cunningham Park and in November a roller skating party. This term, for the first time, we haven't had to rush to get a good table in the lunchroom. The senior tables were all picked out for us. It looks as though this term is going to be hard, but fun.

Good night.

December, 1945

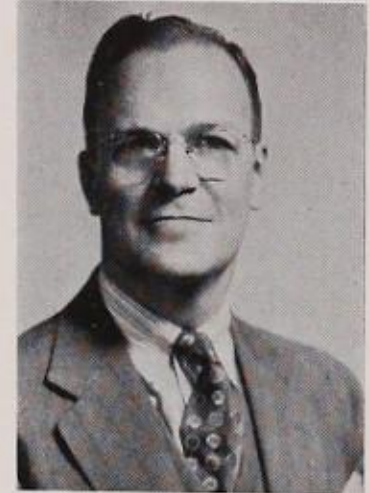

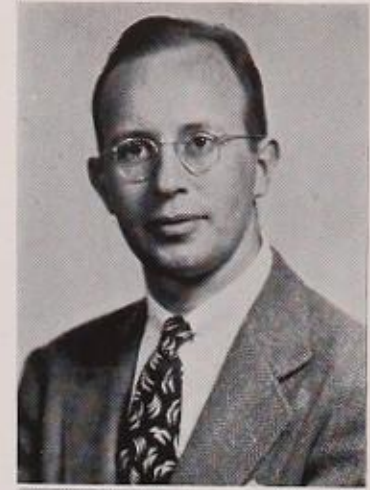

Dear Diary,

I was right about the work, but as for the fun, the best is yet to come. Senior Day is just a few days off and the plans sound wonderful. Every senior will take over a teacher's class for the whole day and we'll probably eat in the teachers' cafeteria. And then on December fourteenth the Prom at Hotel Pierre's Starlight Roof, no less. I know that will be something I'll never forget—if I can find an escort. This term is going so quickly, graduation will come before we know it. I can't imagine leaving Forest Hills High School.

BOYS' SPORTS

February, 1942—Unheralded, the class of January, 1946 enters F.H.H.S. They have not yet begun P.S.A.L. competition.

March, 1942—The fencing team is the first Forest Hills team to enter P.S.A.L. competition, promptly beating Midwood High, 7-5.

April, 1942—In the first Varsity-Faculty game, the Varsity swamps the Faculty. Forest Hills needs peppier teachers!

May, 1942—The fencing team continues to show promise as they deadlock an experienced Morris team. The tennis team makes its P.S.A.L. debut, whitewashing Richmond Hill and edging Newtown, 3-2. To add a sour note, the track team loses to L.I.C.

June, 1942—The Newtown tennis team scalps Forest Hills, 5-0. There goes a championship out the window. The track team has bad habits. This time F.H.H.S. loses to Richmond Hill.

September, 1942—The fall term opens with the soccer team prepared to enter P.S.A.L. play. Prospects look bright.

October, 1942—Soccermen trample Jefferson to register triumph in debut. This looks like a championship team.

November, 1942—This gets better every day—the soccer team blanks Cleveland. The basketball team plans to open League competition.

December, 1942—Make room for that trophy—Forest Hills takes Queens soccer championship. Forest Hills is nosed out in the Interborough playoffs.

January, 1943—The basketball team conquers L.I.C. in its Madison Square Garden opening. Forest Hills also topples Jackson, defending City champs, in a non-league tilt. Move over the soccer trophy and dust off the shelf.

February, 1943—The class of January, 1946 starts its sophomore year. To celebrate, the basketball team takes the North Queens championship.

March, 1943—There's no more celebrating in Forest Hills. The team loses to Jackson in the Queens playoffs.

April, 1943—The tennis team smashes to its third straight win of the current season by massacring Bayside. To keep in the spirit of things, the track team goes on losing.

May, 1943—The tennis team administers to Newtown its first defeat in almost two years.

June, 1943—The golf team terminates its schedule, ending in third place in a four-team league. Well, it could have been worse. The team is coached by some member of the English Department. I think his name is Leonard—or something.

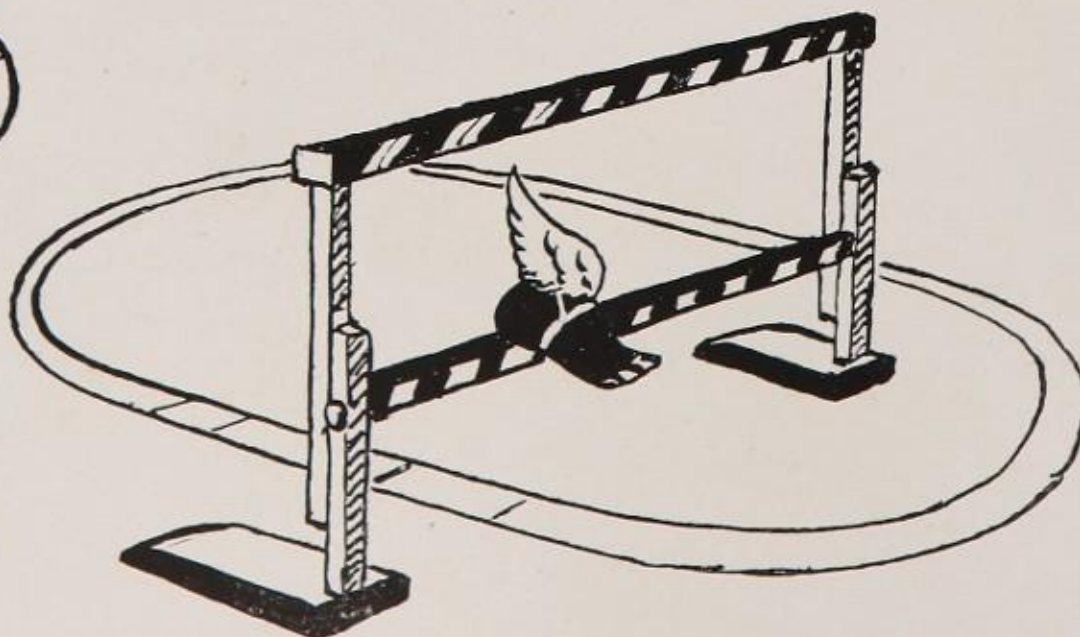

September, 1943—We've gotta rest sometime.

October, 1943—Still resting. Oh, yeah, the soccer team opens its season.

November, 1943—Slow season. Booters lose to Cleveland.

December, 1943—WANTED: Freshmen, six feet or over, 85 per cent averages, to play basketball. No experience necessary.

January, 1944—The basketball team keeps pace with the league leaders. Freshmen no longer needed.

February, 1944—As the class of January, 1946 reaches the half-way mark and prepares to enter its junior year, Forest Hills loses a basketball game to Bayside at Madison Square Garden.

March, 1944—The tennis team is about to begin its spring competition. By way of a change, the track team looks good. The basketball team ends its season in undisputed possession of second place.

April, 1944—The track team defeats Taft and Richmond Hill in its opening dual meets. See, we weren't kidding. As expected, the tennis team trounces all comers to date.

May, 1944—Undeclared in dual competition, the track team looks forward to the Queens championship. The tennis team, also unbeaten, awaits battle with Newtown for the Queens title.

June, 1944—The tennis team remains undefeated, taking the Queens crown and subsequently the City Championship. The track team finishes third in the Queens championship meet. Our teams are getting better all the time. (Put it to music.)

September, 1944—Dr. Lucey takes over the job of coaching the soccer team as no other coaches are available.

October, 1944—The soccer squad, going strong, is undefeated in league play. The basketball team starts pre-season practice.

November, 1944—The soccer team closes its season with a record of three victories and two defeats in P.S.A.L. competition. Jerry Pannell shuts out Erasmus in the closing game. The basketball team loses its first three encounters. Dave Coyne stars.

December, 1944—The basketball team goes on losing; Coyne goes on scoring. Forest Hills beats Newtown in chess anyway.

January, 1945—Graduation will not weaken the basketball team this year—it's too weak already.

February, 1945—Heralded by the class of January, 1946, we enter our senior year. Sports are at a standstill.

March, 1945—The basketball team closes its season by trouncing Bryant on the home court. Nothing else to cheer about.

April, 1945—Netmen conquer Jackson. Tennis team takes Far Rockaway. Trackmen down St. Ann's Academy. Bayside track team beats Forest Hills. Foils men lose stars. Speedball club gains popularity.

May, 1945—The tennis team remains undefeated; the golf team remains defeated. The track team blasts New Dorp.

June, 1945—The tennis team retains its Queens and City titles. The track team wins another. This time Forest Hills beats Bryant.

September, 1945—Varsity sports cut to two teams. Soccer and basketball teams hold fall practice.

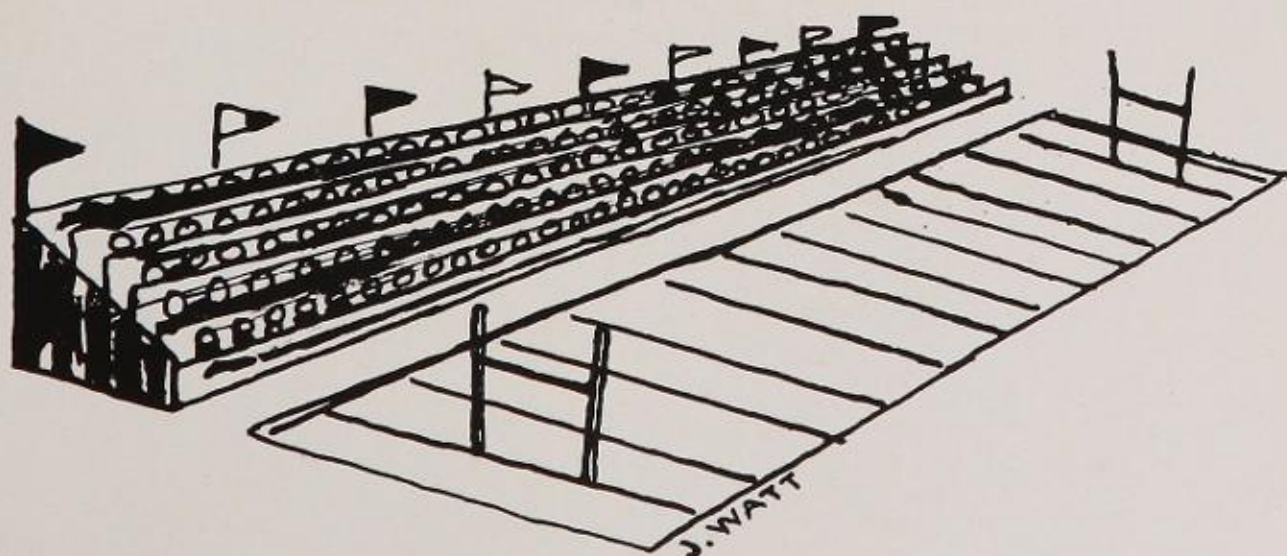

October, 1945—The soccer team shuts out Bronx Science to open its season. The Jefferson booters tie Forest Hills, but we shut out Commerce, defending city champs, and then beat Boys High, 2-0.

As for November, December, and January, Cohen and Perilla predict—

A Queens and possibly a city soccer championship for Forest Hills.

The basketball team will reach the local playoffs.

If we had a chess team, it would be in there castling. Any bets?

GIRLS' SPORTS

Looking back over our four years on the gym floor, we see that members of the class of January '46 excelled in sports.

Valerie Watson is our outstanding athlete. Not only has she been active in the basketball, badminton, and speedball clubs, but she has also been a Leader and an extremely effective member of our champion softball and volley-ball teams during the seventh term. She holds many PSAL awards and has earned a seven-inch FH letter. In all of the girls' sports, Val has proved herself tops.

Leonora Beck, Tina Fatum, Catherine Scholenko and Corinne Wilson have also been important volley-ball stars and they were on last term's victorious class team.

Softball whizzes have also made their appearance. Edith Becker, Marie Lombardi and Vivian Sparrow were outstanding on their respective squads. In addition, Marie and Vivian hold PSAL awards for excellence in softball.

To our sports scribes, three charming ladies of the press—the "Gym Gem" girls to you—we owe our thanks for their efforts in advertising our athletic exploits. Lenora Beck, Ethel Samuelson, and Vivian Sparrow covered their assignment adequately, to say the least.

To our genial teachers, we owe much for making life on the gym floor memorable. Under Miss Coghlan's intensive leadership, we won our inter-class championships. Miss Doyle's mischievous wink and her dimples made "Health Service" always a pleasure. We owe Miss Appele, Miss Capodiferro, Miss Muller, and Mrs. Sheets gratitude for pulling us through our eight terms of Health Ed, and the dear leaders—oh, well!

"Hey, you!"

"Huh! I didn't do anythin'."

"Never mind! What's your floor spot?"

"Er—Q19—but what's this all about?"

"Double socks! And the next time I see you with them, you'll fail!"

Remember?

CLASS OF JUNE, 1945

SENIORS

R. PADULA

ADLER, ANITA

French Club; Aide in Math Office.

Nursing School.

To be concise

We'll say she's nice.

BARTELS, FRANK O.

Senior Vice-Pres.; Senior Office Squad; Marshal.

N. Y. U.

Vice-President of our class is Frank;

High on the senior list he will rank.

AINE, BEATRICE

Language Honor Society; French Certificate; Aide in Forester Office; Vice-Pres., 8F1.

Queens College.

Lots of knowledge in a package neat—

Bea's the girl who can't be beat.

BAUER, MARION L.

Classroom Secretary; Marshal; Typist for Miss Nolan.

Business.

In school Marion has done her best;

She's also added a certain zest.

AMADOR, SUZANNE

Forester Staff; Hostess; Math Award; Meritorious Service Certificate; Play Production.

Lasell Junior College.

Slender, blue-eyed, not too tall, Sue has won the hearts of all.

BECK, LENORA P.

Leaders' Club; Beacon; Exceptional Service Certificate.

Queens College.

For the poor freshmen Len never cared.

She gave them all zeros for coming unprepared.

ANTONE, JOAN M.

Park Attendance Office; Park School Office; Badminton Club; Meritorious Service Certificate.

Queens College.

Joan is blithe and full of fun

So she's liked by everyone.

BECKER, EDITH R.

Here and there and everywhere

Always willing to do his share.

BECKER, WINIFRED B.

Locker Room; Basketball Club; Emergency Room; Victory Corps.

New York University.

Between 9:00 and 3:30 she has little to say;

The last gong really begins her day.

BARFOOT, JEANNE G.

Leaders' Club; Exceptional Service Certificate.

Southern Seminary Junior College, Va.

If she comes home saying "you all"

You'll know her Virginia college gave her that drawl.

BECKWITH, MARY D.

Play Production; Chorus; Attendance Office.

Business.

Where Sarah Bernhardt was once the rage

Now we look forward to Mary on stage.

BARNIKEL, PETER J.

Pres. of Spanish Class; Asst. to Mr. Wigler.

We all laugh when we think of Pete;

His sense of humor can't be beat.

BERGER, FLORENCE

Marshal.

Lasell Jr. College.

All smiles, all gladness,

All good, no badness.

BERKMAN, VIVIAN
Forest Leaves; Hall Marshal;
 Study Marshal.
 Wisconsin.

Willing to help and eager to please,
 She will go far with virtues like these.

BERKOWITZ, BARBARA R.
 We think Barbara's the perfect
 teen;
 She's liked before and after she's seen.

BERNSTEIN, STANLEY
 Victory Show; Lt. in Cafeteria;
 First Aid.
 C.C.N.Y.

Now a cheer for "our boy" Stan;
 We think that he's his biggest fan.

BIEBER, ANITA

 Business.

Herb will surely rise to fame;
 He has ambition and an aim.

BILSKY, NORMAN H.
 Meritorious Service Certificate;
 President of Hist. Class; Marshal.
 N.Y.U.

Norman will never miss a trick;
 And with the girls he thinks he's slick.

BOGEL, BERNICE
Beacon Staff; Meritorious Service
 Certificate; Science Award; Gen.
 Office Staff.
 College.

Looking for a girl who's a honey?
 Naturally you think of Bunny!

BOGGS, ELAINE H.
 Service at Newtown H. S.
 Dickinson Jr. College.
 Unknown from Newtown High
 she came;
 In Forest Hills she gained her fame.

BONDANZA, DOROTHY D.
 G.O. Senior Representative, Park
 School; Park School Office.
 Queens College.
 The outside world it now demands her;
 So we say good-bye to Dorothy
 Bondanza.

BRISTOW, WILLIAM H.
 Arista; Lab. Squad; Science Honor Society.
 Columbia.
 A biology career he's headed for—
 Let's hope the bugs won't be a bore.

BRODY, MOLLIE
 Chorus; Aide in Girls' Gym;
 Miss Gribben's Office.
 Junior College.
 For a laugh a minute Mollie's
 the one;
 She's a good sport and loads of fun.

BROWN, ELGRIA
Forester; General Office; Victory
 Show; Bio. Award.
 College.
 Her voice so clear
 Is a joy to hear.

BROWN, MARVIN E.

 Next in line is Marvin Brown;
 When it comes to figures, he goes to town.

BRUMBERGER, STANLEY
 Capt. Corps; Marshal; P.S.A.L.
 Winner; Intramural Basketball.
 N.Y.U.
 Stanley is always talking double,
 Never happy unless he's in trouble.

CANAVACIOL, MARIE A.
Chorus; Meritorious Service Certificate.
Queens College.
Small and cute, knows how to sing,
She's the girl with everything.

COYNE, DAVID
Captain of Basketball Team,
U. S. Army.
An all around athlete is handsome Dave.
No wonder about him the gals do rave.

CASPER, ROBERT
Nat'l Scholastic Art Awards; St. Gaudens Art Medal; Art Staff, Beacon and Forest Leaves.
Syracuse College.
Water color, oil, and screened silk,
Bob's acquainted with all their ilk.

CROSS, SETH

A very intelligent sort of guy—
But watch that twinkle in his eye!

COHN, ANN J.
Lab. Assistant; Museum Squad; Sec. to Miss Schlachter.
Cooper Union.
Her manner and her friendly air
Make her welcome everywhere.

CULLEY, BARBARA J.
Cheerleader; Prom. Comm.; Exceptional Service Certificate; Volleyball Club.
Pennsylvania State College.
Baibara is so very pretty
We can't say enough in this one little ditty.

CONEYS, ROBERT J.
Sophomore G.O. Rep.; Track Team; Basketball (J.V.); Captain Corps; Hi-Y.
Pratt.
Robert Coneys, tall and dark,
Adds to our class that certain spark.

DELANEY, DONALD J.
Exceptional Service Certificate; P.S.A.L. Award; Museum; State Phy. Award.
U. S. Navy.
Delaney — is he a card!

COOPERMAN, IRENE D.
Chorus; Forest Leaves; Exceptional Service Certificate; Badminton Club.

Who's the girl with smile so keen?
Why, of course, it's our Irene!

DEHN, WILLIAM W.
Senior Council; Exceptional Service Certificate; P.S.A.L. Awards; Forester; Tennis Intramurals.
Pratt Institute.
Versatile and handsome too—
There's very little that he can't do.

CORN, SHELDON
Intramural Basketball Award; P.S.A.L. Award.
U. S. Army.
Next we turn to Shelly Corn,
He will graduate some fine morn.

DEUTSCH, THELMA

Park Attendance Office.
Barnard.

Blue eyes, blonde hair—
What a girl, this damsel fair!

ELKIN, SONYA

Chem. Lab. Squad; Basketball
Club; Volleyball Club; Lunch
Patrol.

University of Michigan.

She aimed to please
And did it with ease.

ESPOSITO, ANN C.

Guidance Office; Marshal.
Business.

If eyes are a mirror of one's disposition,
That places Ann in a happy position.

EVANS, JANE W.

Badminton Club; Home Nursing Club; Minute Man; Arista Coach. Davis and Elkins.

In school activity she's done her share;
Jane's good nature is beyond compare.

FANNING, THOMAS E.

Marshal; P.S.A.L. Award; Aide to Mr. Wigler; Class Secretary. Hail and farewell to Thomas Fanning

We wish him success in what he's planning.

FATUM, ALBERTINA

Orchestra; Volleyball; Home Nursing. Juilliard.

If you want to win at volleyball, Tina's the girl that you should call!

FEINBERG, BERTRAM

Gym Awards; Engineering Club. Philadelphia Textile College.

In bond sales Bert is ahead of us all.
He's there to answer the Treasury's call.

FELIX, ELEANOR J.

Forest Attendance Office; Marshal; Class Secretary. Business College.

Eleanor with hair piled high
Rates a whistle from every guy.

FELSHIN, ELAINE B.

Biology Laboratory Squad; Forest Leaves; Play Production; Spanish Club.

In every class Elaine excels;
Fame is what her future spells.

FERON, JAMES M.

CLASS PROPHECY

"Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. Every week at this time the WILLIAM MURPHY Corporation, producers of Murphy House Tea, takes great pleasure in presenting that sterling news ace, Mr. DANIEL COHEN. Mr. Cohen. . . ."

"Good evening, Mr. and Mrs. North America and all the clippers and ships at sea. Let's go to press. Flash—Washington: Newly appointed ambassador to France, GEORGE JEAN, held a forty-five minute conference at the White House today with President HUNNEKE. Also present was Senator DONAHUE of New York. Ambassador Jean will leave for Paris next Saturday. . . . Stockholm: WILLIAM BRISTOW, noted American biologist, has been awarded the Nobel Prize in Medicine for his work in the prevention of virus diseases, it was announced this morning. . . . Cambridge: The board of trustees of Harvard University announced early today the appointment of HOWARD SCHAFFER to the post of college president. . . ."

Washington: After much debate, the post of curator of the National Museum of Natural History has been given to LEONARD HENSCHEL. . . . Boston: MARY DUFFY, private secretary of wealthy New England industrialist, WILLIAM SOBELSOHN, announced today that Mr. Sobelsohn feels prosperity is definitely here to stay. This revelation, coupled with a similar statement yesterday by New York Stock Exchange President GUTMANN, will almost certainly cause a jump in values on the big board when the gong rings tomorrow at ten. . . . New York: ELAINE FELSHIN, librarian of the New York Public Library, has revealed plans for a new building at Fifth and Forty-second. The architects are WILLIAM DEHN and Company. . . . The Metropolitan Museum of Art will feature this week a display of murals by the noted American artist, ROBERT CASPER. . . . Boston: AMY KUHN'S latest novel, New South, has been banned in this city, assuring it tremendous sales. . . . New York: Among the many notables arriving today aboard the Queen Victoria were pianist ANITA BIEBER, returning from a triumphant tour of European capitals; incredibly chic Fifth Avenue modiste, ELIN TANNENBAUM, from Paris, where she found French styles far inferior to American ones; ANITA PHILLIPS, from Moscow, where she has been instructing at the National School of Ballet; and Times Sports Editor, BOB PERILLA, from London, where he has been covering the Olympic Games. . . . New York: Rumors concerning a proposed duel between HOWARD JANIS, editor of the Times, and DAVID MANDEL of P.M. are absolutely false, it was learned here today from unimpeachable sources. . . . And now, a word from our announcer."

"Ladies, try delicious Murphy House Tea. If you do so, you will be following high society, for here is what Mrs. Franklin C. Van Uppington, the former BARBARA KRAUS, says of our tea: 'I serve Murphy House Tea at all my many parties at Park Avenue, Newport, and Bar Harbor. Its flavor is unrivaled by any other brand.'

"Why don't you follow Mrs. Van Uppington's example? Try a cup of Murphy House today.

"Now back to Mr. Cohen and the news."

"Thank you, MR. BIENSTOCK. . . . Minneapolis: Coach ANNIE MORSE of Minnesota's powerful Golden Gophers is confident of an overwhelming triumph in the annual classic against Michigan next Saturday. . . . Washington: Miss JUNE GANZ has been appointed official interpreter for the Pan-American Conference to be held in Santiago next month, CARROLL WASSERMAN, coordinator of Latin American affairs, announced today. . . . New York: The New York city high school system has adopted the RUTH RALPH system of shorthand. . . . Chicago: Rumors persist here that JAMES FERON, sporting goods magnate, will be elected Baseball Commissioner at the fall conference next week. CHARLES MORRIS, owner of the Giants, has come out publicly in his favor. . . . New York: The Fifth Avenue window display contest was won by Lord and Taylor for a display by PAULINE GOLDBERG last March. . . . Albany: THELMA DEUTSCH, secretary of the American Labor Party, expects the party to double its strength in the November elections. . . . New York: Macbeth opens tonight at the Schrage, starring ROBERT KAVANAUGH in the title role and JUDITH SHERRIN as Lady Macbeth. . . . Chicago: The Barnum & Bailey Circus will play Chicago beginning next month, DAVID LANDAU, manager, announced today.

"And now I see the time has come to say 'So long until next week'."

REVERIE

One day, many years from now, when I am old
I'll sit before the fire and turn each page
And from these leaves my memories will unfold—
Then I'll slip backward into youth from age.

The crisp October mornings when I walked,
Books on my arm, to school, to meet the friends
Whose faces here are pictured—and we talked—
Trivial pleasant chat of odds and ends.

The tall white tower gleaming through the haze—
The polished marble of the entrance hall
Long lines in corridors through endless days—
And in the gym—the games of basketball.

Thus from the vistas of the long ago
Painting the picture in my reveries
Spreading the canvas with enchanted glow
As is the way, at last, with memories.

SUZANNE AMADOR, 8H1

SO THEY SAY

Mr. Bartlett—"Bon! Bon!"

Mr. Bernstein—"Are there any questions? (All raise hands.) Now, to go on."

Mr. Bovin—"Okey-oke, go to it."

Mr. Doyle—"I have a new whistle here. Let me blow it just to see if it works."

Miss Gandia—"No se habla en la clase!"

Mr. Haft—"Girrrrrl, come over here."

Mrs. Kavanagh—"Mrs. Kavanagh will be very angry."

Mr. Keyes—"Ah-ah ah-ah! Wretched child!"

Mr. Lazarus—"Do you think Dr. Brandwein has a priority on all the pretty girls?"

Mr. Miller—"Put all books away!"

Mr. Pred—"Once an Englishman, always an Englishman."

Mrs. Seale—"Are there any cheerleaders in the class? Stand up! Don't they look pretty?"

Mr. Smukler—"Now, I have a new method."

Miss Soley—"This will be on the Regents—I'll bet my last dollar on it."

Miss Stedman—"Archie helps me mark my papers."

Mrs. Weiting—"All right! Now I'm making out a card for you."

Miss Whitcomb—"Come, little vegetables, stop boiling over."

Mr. Zareko—"Si-i-i-ng."

Mr. Zisowitz—"This is a democratic paper run by a dictator."

The Seniors—"Stone walls do not a prison make—Nor iron bars a cage."

Alma Mater

Words and Music
by WILBUR HAMJE

Let us raise a song
To Alma Mater strong!
Our Guide and Stay she'll be for aye,
Her Pow'r will long sustain us.
When we must part,
Deep-graven in each heart,
Will live fond thoughts of yesteryear,
Of days at FOREST HILLS.
